

MULE CREEK POST

Volume 1, Issue 1 | Page 1 | Page 2

THE BOARD OF PRISONER HEARINGS
Through multiple board hearings for inmates, they all moved back to programs.

RECENTLY OR SOON TO BE ONE
Former inmates share their journey to becoming students at MCC Community College.

To Our Readers

By: J. Ryan Smith
Editor-in-Chief

WELCOME TO THE first issue of your Mule Creek Post. From today, rights, hope, and an end to the fear in living this terrible and uncertain justice system. We also welcome the Prisoners' Perspective, Prisoners' Progress, Prisoners' and group members, in your insight into the best representation of personal, professional, academic, and future development.

Many of the great questions have been answered. We are looking forward to your feedback and your questions in order to make this journal the most like to read, fun, and educational that reflects contributions to justice, rights, and how we are doing it.

Thank you for continuing a significant chapter in our lives.

We'll get with Steve Smith following the successful board hearings in the Mule Creek Post. From today, rights, hope, and an end to the fear in living this terrible and uncertain justice system.

From the editors, the staff, and the "Mule Creek Post," we are all looking forward to your contributions.

We also appreciate the Prisoners' Perspective, Prisoners' Progress, Prisoners' and group members, in your insight into the best representation of personal, professional, academic, and future development.

We also appreciate the Prisoners' Perspective, Prisoners' Progress, Prisoners' and group members, in your insight into the best representation of personal, professional, academic, and future development.

Thank you for continuing a significant chapter in our lives. We'll get with Steve Smith following the successful board hearings in the Mule Creek Post. From today, rights, hope, and an end to the fear in living this terrible and uncertain justice system.

Five Mule Creek Inmates Receive Commutations in December

By: J. Ryan Smith
Editor-in-Chief

FIVE INMATES FROM Mule Creek have been granted commutations by the Board of Prisoner Hearings. The inmates are: [Names of inmates]

The inmates are: [Names of inmates]

Photo: [Name of photographer]

Photo: [Name of photographer]

Victims Awareness Offender's Program

Phase One

By: J. Ryan Smith
Editor-in-Chief

THE VICTIMS AWARENESS Offender's Program (VAOP) is all about learning to identify how victims feel, think, and live. The goal of the program is to help inmates understand the impact of their actions on others.

The program is designed to help inmates understand the impact of their actions on others. It is a mandatory program for all inmates.

The program is designed to help inmates understand the impact of their actions on others. It is a mandatory program for all inmates.

Victims Awareness Offender's Program

The program is designed to help inmates understand the impact of their actions on others. It is a mandatory program for all inmates.

The program is designed to help inmates understand the impact of their actions on others. It is a mandatory program for all inmates.

The program is designed to help inmates understand the impact of their actions on others. It is a mandatory program for all inmates.

Five Mule Creek Inmates Receive Commutations in December

By: J. Ryan Smith
Editor-in-Chief

FIVE INMATES FROM Mule Creek have been granted commutations by the Board of Prisoner Hearings. The inmates are: [Names of inmates]

The inmates are: [Names of inmates]

The inmates are: [Names of inmates]

Photo: [Name of photographer]